24.	WARD COUNCILLOR FEEDBACK	Councillor Waddington reported that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Changes to the use of former Leicester City Council buildings in the area had been a</li></ul>

success, i.e. the Home Farm Neighbourhood Centre now being owned and run by Beaumont Leys Muslims and the former Housing office in Home Farm now being owned and run by E2. It was hoped the Beaumont Lodge Building would develop well with the Neighbourhood Association.

- 500+ children had taken part in summer activities as part of the holiday hunger programme, organised by various voluntary programmes and Christ the King Church. Crime rates had reduced compared to previous summers.
- The E2 foodbank (open every Friday) had fed thousands of people in need.

Councillor Waddington thanked people and teams including: The Housing Team, Beaumont Leys Library, the City Warden and Sgt Ian Parker/Leicestershire Police.

Councillor Westley reported that:

- Patch walks had taken place throughout the ward to tackle fly tipping.
- It was hoped community projects for elderly people and children at Barley Croft would continue.

A worker from E2 raised the point that youth workers had been working for 18 months with young people at-risk of becoming involved in or victims of knife crime. The police had given this group a contract for peer education on the issue of knife crime.

Councillor Rae Bhatia gave an update on highways issues in the ward. Including:

- Factory workers parking cars on Croft Road were causing traffic problems. Residents were being consulted on the issue. Action: Councillor Rae Bhatia to explore options for parking enforcement.
- Work had begun to dual carriage Anstey Lane around the junction with the A46. Trees cut down in the area would be re-placed.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Complaints had been received about speed bumps on Ashton Green Road causing damage to vehicles and that issue was being addressed.</li> <li>• Drivers were hazardously creating two lanes on a single lane area on Glenfrith Way. A meeting was to be held on 28th February to discuss this issue.</li> <li>• Concern was expressed over school run traffic issues. It was suggested that schools need to dissuade parents from using cars if they live nearby.</li> <li>• A bike-sharing scheme was to be implemented with Beaumont Leys getting priority after the city centre.</li> </ul>
25.	LOCAL POLICING UPDATE	PCSO Paige Martin and PCSO Aaron Wheatley gave an update on local policing issues across the ward and crime statistics were noted. Points made during the update included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Burglaries were being tackled and arrests had been made.</li> <li>• Knife crime was an issue force-wide. Patrols had been made to hotspots across Beaumont Leys.</li> <li>• Operation Wham had been implemented in Leicester and Loughborough to tackle drug-related crime and county lines crime.</li> <li>• There had been a number of motorcycle issues and stolen/broken motorbikes had been removed from the street.</li> <li>• PC Matt Lapidge had transferred to the New Parks area.</li> <li>• There were currently 5 PCSOs for the Beaumont Leys area. A recruitment drive for Leicestershire Police saw 107 PCs had been recruited this year, and more PCSOs would be recruited in September.</li> <li>• Police involvement with schools continued to</li> </ul>

		promote prevention of drugs and knife crime. A resident raised the fact that the E2 Centre had been broken into and praised the police for the work they did on the case. The Police mentioned a gang-related stabbing incident on Eskdale Road in which 5 arrests had been made. The suspects were now on pending further investigation. There was a brief discussion about concerns in the community and it was, suggested that more could be done to alleviate this fear and reduce gang violence, and there was a need for a long-term programme of action to make people feel safer. Councillor Rae Bhatia asked what measures were taken to compensate for the diversion of police on match days? PCSO Martin replied that Leicester was second-most populated with CCTV cameras after London, and this along with the recruitment drive aided police coverage. A resident suggested producing leaflets and holding drop-in sessions to reach out to people who wanted help avoiding becoming involved with crime.
26.	CITY WARDEN UPDATE	City Warden Charlotte Williams-Glover gave an update on issues in the ward. Including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Councillors had been met to discuss fly-tipping issues. Posters had been created for hotspot sites. Residents were encouraged to report any fly-tipping hotspots.</li> <li>• There had been incidents of fly-posting in the ward and one firm was being prosecuted.</li> <li>• There had been an increase in reports of dog fouling in the ward. Stencilled warnings could be put down in spring.</li> <li>• RE: The issue of bins on the street on Bishopdale Road, people responsible would be fined if the issue continued but the process may take up to 3 months.</li> </ul> Action: City Warden to distribute leaflets with contact details for bulk waste collections etc to libraries and community centres within the ward. Action: City Warden and Councillor Westley to talk to

		City Cleansing about the procedure for clearing out items from a burned-out house. Action: City Warden to investigate fly-tipping on Littlewood Close.
27.	HOUSING UPDATE	Neighbourhood Housing Officer Alison Morrish gave an update on housing issues in the ward which included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 16 projects undertaken including knee-rail fencing, shrubbery removals, bin areas and painting projects, had been undertaken. One was not yet completed due to cost issues. £2000 was left in the budget for future projects.</li> <li>• Between November and January there had been 41 voids. Currently in Beaumont Leys there were 43 voids and 135 properties had been let in the past year.</li> <li>• There had been 93 ASB cases dealt with in 2018.</li> <li>• There had been three evictions from November to January. Two due to rent arrears and one due to an ASBO.</li> <li>• The Housing team had been working with the police to tackle motorbikes/quadbikes being used in an antisocial way on estates in the ward.</li> <li>• Tenancy visits were no longer carried out due to a lack of resources. Housing repairs were dealt with by the Repairs team, not the Housing team.</li> </ul> Concerns were expressed concern over the amount of empty properties, long delays with voids, and unacceptable time taken on repairs and maintenance. Concerns also expressed concern about evictions due to the introduction of Universal Credit. Councillors were advised that eviction proceedings were taken as a last resort and other solutions such as discretionary housing payments were looked into first.
28.	LEICESTER ADULT SKILLS AND	Anna Parr and Salado Ahmed of Leicester Adult Skills and Learning Service gave a presentation on courses and programmes that they offered. Including:

	LEARNING SERVICE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Courses in work improvement and career development that were free to all.</li> <li>• Level 1 and 2 qualifications, free to people on various benefits or earning less than £15736.50 p/a.</li> <li>• Courses in English, Maths and English as a Second Language (ESOL).</li> <li>• A wide range of community arts and leisure courses at £1.80 per hour.</li> <li>• Universal Credit and digital support sessions across the city including the Central Library and Jobcentre Plus buildings.</li> <li>• LASALS had implemented a research project in Beaumont Leys, running focus groups and people were encouraged to take part in these focus groups which could be arranged at a convenient date/time.</li> </ul> Councillor Waddington suggested that specific groups could be engaged with practical courses in textiles/sewing combined with ESOL tuition. Salado Ahmed responded that this was the kind of project that the scheme was looking into. Councillor Rae Bhatia commented local employers would be engaged in the hope of opening paths to better employment.
29.	CROWDFUND LEICESTER	Graduate Project Officer Kirsty Wootton gave a presentation on Crowdfund Leicester. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To create or fund projects access the website www.spacehive.com/movement/crowdfundleicester.</li> <li>• Crowdfund Leicester were working with local organisations such as DDT Consultancy and De Montfort University.</li> <li>• Spacehive were linking them with backers.</li> <li>• Under the City Mayor’s Community Engagement Fund, up to £10,000 could be given for each project, or up to 50% of the total</li> </ul>
