Mr D Lacmo

Dear Mr Lacmo

Curry Flavour Restaurant and Bar 225 Uppingham Road

Your application for a premises licence has been processed and I am pleased to advise you that your licence has been granted. The licence is enclosed, together with a summary. Please make sure that you understand the terms and conditions of the licence.

Your attention is drawn to Section 57 of the Licensing Act 2003, which states;

"(2) The holder of the premises licence must secure that the licence or a certified copy of it is kept at the premises in the custody or under the control of

- a) the holder of the licence, or
- b) a person who works at the premises and whom the holder of the licence has nominated in writing...

(3) The holder of the premises licence must secure that

- a) the summary of the licence or a certified copy of that summary, and
- b) a notice specifying the position held at the premises by any person nominated for the purposes of subsection (2), are displayed prominently at the premises."

It is an offence to fail to comply with the above requirements.

An annual fee is payable under the Licensing Act 2003, and this becomes due and payable each year on the anniversary of the date of the grant of the premises licence.

A questionnaire is enclosed, the results of which will enable us to monitor and improve the service we provide. I would be grateful if you could fill it in and return it to the Licensing Section.

Other permissions may be required in addition to your premises licence. Please contact planning on (0116) 4541000 or planning@leicester.gov.uk for advice on any planning restrictions.

If you have any queries, please contact the Licensing Section on (0116) 454 3040 or email licensing@leicester.gov.uk .

Yours sincerely,

Valentina Cenic

- dispensing alcohol directly by one person into the mouth of another a) (other than where that other person is unable to drink without assistance by reason of a disability).

The responsible person must ensure that free potable water is provided on request to customers where it is reasonably available.

The premises licence holder or club premises certificate holder must ensure that an age verification policy is adopted in respect of the premises in relation to the sale or supply of alcohol.

The designated premises supervisor in relation to the premises licence must ensure that the supply of alcohol at the premises is carried on in accordance with the age verification policy.

The policy must require individuals who appear to the responsible person to be under 18 years of age (or such older age as may be specified in the policy) to produce on request, before being served alcohol, identification bearing their photograph, date of birth and either-

A relevant person shall ensure that no alcohol is sold or supplied for consumption on or off the premises for a price which is less than the permitted price.
