CITY WARDEN SERVICE UPDATE

Stoneygate report .

FLYTIPPING IN THE AREA:

Ongoing problem areas are showing an increase in large items these are being tackled with Community Protection Notices and these are having a good positive effect on the area, fixed penalty notices are being issued.

Investigations have been completed on a number of cases with fixed penalties being issued.

DUTY OF CARES:

Stage One:

July and August all the businesses on Evington road have been visited and issued with section 34 duty of care this is to check there waste is being deposited correctly.

This was a good reception and compliance, work is still being completed.

Stage Two:

Will be to work with the business to maintain the fronts of there business and containing there waste at all times.

Winter projects

I will be relooking at the bins on streets projects and major hotspots for fly-tipping

Also Community clean up days including meet and greets with residents, reminding residents how to remove there waste correctly and the home owners duty of care
