- There were 29 burglaries in January 2018, up on December, mainly near to the Welford Road Police Station / Gainsborough Road, Chapel Lane, Ratcliffe Road. A person was arrested and would likely be charged with handling stolen goods. The recording of burglaries included sheds (28 houses + 1 shed), and quite a lot were during the daytime;
- At the beginning of February, a person was charged and remanded to prison for burglaries in the Shirley Road area and on Carisbrooke Road. As a prolific burglar, If he had not been caught there might have been a spike in the number of burglaries, but that pattern had now finished;
- An attempted burglary took place at 3.00am on Gainsborough Road but the burglar was disturbed. Access had been gained through an unlocked gate;
- A house on Asquith Boulevard was targeted for Asian jewellery, and access had been gained through neighbouring gardens;
- Extra patrols took place every single day, and officers had been moved out of Wigston to look at the problem;
- Theft of motor vehicles, believed to be linked to organised crime, and very difficult to keep up with, and predominantly on the South Knighton side;
- In the past 50 days, there were 26 thefts from vehicles. CCTV had shown a person coming onto a driveway and trying car doors. The same advice was for people not to leave items on show in vehicles. Incidences usually occurred late at night;
- There were no further issues to report at Lancaster Academy;
- The issue with doorbells being stolen had been resolved.

Crime figures for any area could be found on the website www.police.uk Residents could also receive updates on their area by registering on the neighbourhood link on the police website.
