Please summarise your concerns about this application:
I write in my capacity as Licensing Manager for Leicestershire Police, with delegated authority of the Chief Constable. This is a new application for the grant of a new licence for the sale of late night refreshment. Until 04.00 hours. These premises are situated on Fosse Road South which is within a residential area of the city. The area is very quiet and does not attract customers associated with the night time economy, visiting the Braunstone Gate area. If the application was successful then it is likely that the premises will attract customers of the night time economy and that incidents of noise and disorder will increase in the area.

It is the police position that the application should be refused
