1. Summary

Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972 allows the City Council to “confer the title of Honorary Alderman on persons who have, in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent services to the Council as past Members of that Council but who are not then Councillors of the Council.” Such a decision must be made by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the Members voting thereon at a special meeting of the Council

2. Recommended actions/decision

2.1 In accordance with the provisions of Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972, and by virtue of the Council’s policy agreed on 19th February 2019, that the following former Councillors be appointed as an Honorary Alderman of the Leicester City Council:

- Kiritkumar Doshi
- Lucy Chaplin

3. Detailed report

3.1 An Honorary Alderman may attend and take part in such civic ceremonies as the Council may from time to time decide, but does not, as such, have the right to attend meetings of the Council or to receive any allowance or other payment under the Members Allowances Scheme

3.2 The Council has considered the qualifying criteria in 2006, 2011, 2013 and 2020 the combined effect of which leads to the following qualifying criteria:

- The title of Honorary Alderman should be awarded to a Councillor at the end of their front-line political career (i.e., they should not seek public office after being awarded the title if they should do so they should forgo the title).
- It should be awarded after significant service (for the avoidance of doubt this should be “a period of more than one full term as a Councillor”)
- the Councillor should not have previously held the position of Lord Mayor as former holders of this office are already recognised by the Council and the title of Honorary

Alderman is to recognise those who have contributed but not have attained the title of Lord Mayor

- Nominations may be considered up to once per year and nominations may be received from Councillors who are not part of a political group.

3.3 All Groups were invited, by e-mail on 7th April 2026, to submit any nominations for appointment by 24th April 2026 and the two suggested nominees were received and meet the qualifying criteria.
