After re-establishing Act Up youth theatre this year we are now moving to develop the project further. Act Up will now be offering a free weekly after school session throughout the year alongside the intensive project weeks which will run three times a year during both February and October half term and for a week during the summer holidays. This will allow for targeted and age specific social and theatrical skill development that can also be linked to schools' curriculum. We will target Act Up's projects to enhance common educational concerns in the area, targets such as improvement of speaking and listening or using inventive approaches to make meaning, thereby offering an informal curriculum linked learning environment that all children and young people can access. To do this we will be in regular consultation with the schools in the area to find out the areas they feel could be improved and therefore discover common targets. We will investigate any barriers to participation analysing current successful participation and targeting areas where participation could be improved. We will also look to determine project sustainability by establishing and linking up partnerships and investigating the possibility of using existing resources and extra curricular budgets. The skills that the young people develop will not only enable them to become performers, expand their imagination, and increase their creativity, but will also benefit many aspects of their lives: education; social interaction and personality. Their social skills will improve through teamwork and peer mentoring techniques gained from working with young people of all ages. They will learn the importance of compromise when working with others, as well as techniques that enable them to speak out and communicate opinions and ideas. They will gain an increased interest in literature, live performance and other cultural activities that they may not experience without Act Up's input.

Through workshops and performances 'Act Up!' allows young people and their families to socialise with other members of their community; enabling community cohesion and encouraging their sense of citizenship. Ownership of the work they create is forged because the young people are consulted at every stage, their opinions are listened to and their work within the team is praised. The achievement they experience and the skills they learn help to build their confidence and self esteem enabling them to achieve in all areas of life. Act Up also allows young people to demonstrate to the rest of the community what they are capable of and in turn give the community exposure to cultural activity that wouldn't exist without Act Up's input. Act Up will contribute to the young peoples' personal development building self esteem and aspirations, helping them to become confident, independent and well rounded individuals.

The weekly sessions themselves will concentrate on skills development this may involve bringing in other specialist artists to lead sessions in other performance arts mediums aside from theatre or indeed other aspects of theatre itself such as lighting or sound. All in all this will give the young people opportunities in an area of interest that is beyond what is currently offered. This therefore allows the young people to discover their skills as well as possibly opening up career opportunities to them.

We will continue to evaluate the young peoples' progress throughout their time at 'Act Up'. The intensive performance weeks will act as a marker and help us to see how much the young people have learnt from the weekly sessions as they put their theatrical skills into practice. We will also ask for audience feed back after every production which will contribute to us understanding what has been learnt and where improvements can be made. We will also be in contact with the young peoples' schools to discuss and record any changes or improvements that may have occurred due to a young person attending 'Act Up'. After every intensive week and regularly throughout the year we will ask the young people to complete a self evaluation this will help us to understand how they feel they are developing. We will collect photographic evidence (where proper permissions are provided) to give us visual evidence of the young peoples development. We will also form an 'Act Up' members committee or steering group who will be involved in peer evaluation at regular intervals throughout the year.
