Percentage on Housing Register, Bidding Activity, Lettings and Refusals

- The percentages of bidders are broadly in line with the overall percentage on the housing register, although the percentage of black bidders is higher, and Asian slightly lower.
- A higher percentage of lettings have been made to black applicants under HomeChoice than in the previous year.
- Asian households make up 35% of applicants but 30% of bidders. They are more likely to refuse an offer and make up 20% of the lettings, a figure unchanged under HomeChoice.
