

Approved by Council 28 June 2012

This Council strongly supports the work of the Adult and Children's Cardiac Services specialist centre of national excellence based at Glenfield Hospital Leicester and expect the services to be retained, consolidated and further developed to the benefit of the City, County and the Region.