FORWARD TIMETABLE OF CONSULTATION AND MEETINGS:
Standards Committee

21 September 2005

The Standards Board for England's Consultation on the Review of the Code of Conduct

Report of the Town Clerk

1. Purpose of Report

To inform Members of the Standards Board for England's conclusions on how the Code of Conduct should be amended based on its own experience and the consultation responses.

2. Summary

Members will recall, at their meeting on 8 June 2005, considering their comments and input in respect of the Standards Board for England Consultation document relating to the Code of Conduct for Members. These were passed to the Standards Board prior to the consultation closing date of 17 June 2005.

The attached report has now been published, which sums up the Board's conclusions on how the Code should be amended based on its own experience and the consultation processes.

This report and the recommendations contained therein will be forwarded to Ministers for consideration.

3. Recommendations

Members are asked to note the report and recommendations to Ministers arising out of the Standards Board for England's consultation on the Review of the Code of Conduct.

3. Headline Financial and legal Implications
